Billy Bob, Carrie Jo, Mevadene and George are trying to raise a stink in chemistry!

Everyone appears to know the answer in Mrs. Settle's Latin II classs.

Literature wasn't so bad after all, was it freshmen?

It's a close race between the Yanks and the Giants in the series, but the Yanks won.

Janice seems to be enjoying the sophomore English assignment.

My, but these students look wide awake for zero hour study hall!

Patsy holds everyone's attention as she and Mrs. Weeks review for a test in Oklahoma History.

Eight beauties exhibit good posture in the girl's physical education class.

History isn't so dull when we have films, is it lke?

Is composite math getting the best of you, Francine?

Mrs. Arnold's senior English class looks pretty happy before the quiz, don't you think?

Bill slips in an eraser to cut down on errors in typing I class.

Look at those kids go after the chili! Food is good at the cafeteria on cold days.

Dads and moms get a closer look at school and teachers as they attend a P.-T. A. mixer.

The mixed quartet of Larry, Dorothy, Mildred and Roy sing often at special events.

Don, Hollis, Windle and Larry compose the popular boys' quartet.

Georgyne stops in girls' Quartet practice as Peggy, Barbara, Wanda and Sue smile at the photographer.

Jean, Patsy and Mary are dressed identically as they pose for the freshmen trio picture.

Miss Cochran and student council members pose after an interesting conference session at Shreveport.

Wilma muggs as Trask and Betty Jo imitate Mitchell and Ruby makes like Briggs as the camera snapped.

Everyone joins in the tug of war to get the kettle off Glen's head in the all school production of "Adorable Imp."

Here the cast is busy putting on grease paint before the all school play production.

A tense moment in the second act of "Adam's Evening" when the Beans almost have a dead man on their hands.

Buddy, Jerry, Jim and Joe are putting the finishing touches to the cedar chests.

The sophomore FFA class pays a visit to Larry's farm and admires his prize calf.

Chuck shows his auto mechanics class how to weld carefully and correctly.

ALLS TING!

Jerry Trotter, sophomore, and Bill Nix, junior, are two seasoned Pryor players.

BASEBALL

The Pryor Tigers go into the base-ball season with a veteran team of players. The group lost three players with graduation last year. There are several prospects with new students and in the sophomore class. The team will center around Bob Lawson, a junior pitcher, with the support of J. W. Hill, Jerry Trotter, Bill Nix, Pat Patton, Johnny Jordan, Don Cummins, Sonny Evans.

Bob "Lanky" Lawson winds up for a good pitch.

J. W. Hill poses here in the position of catcher.

Girls' sports feature Mrs. Week's physical education classes. Here the group is doing some "warm-ups."

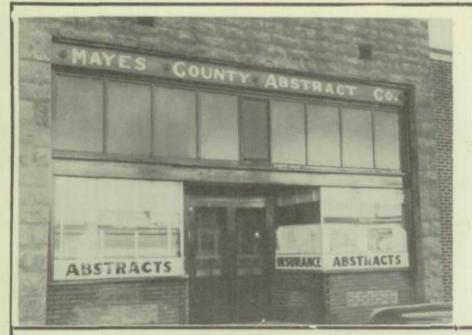

The woman behind the athletic scenes is Mrs. Earl Ludlow who handles all of the money on paper and sees that the boys have money for eats on out of town games.

Three husky Tigermen make improvements on the school grounds out of athletic classes. Don is digging a hole as Bob "straw bosses" a job that Bob Arrowood is doing.
